

Technology made in Gremsdorf, Germany

The IMO Group is headquartered in Gremsdorf, in the Nuremberg metropolitan region, in Southern Germany. Plant I focuses on Slewing Rings whereas plant II develops and manufactures Slew Drives.

Slew Drives

Learn more about ready-to-install systems which substitute several single components.

Slewing Rings for renewable energies for blade, yaw, and single main bearings for wind turbines, as well as blade bearings for tidal stream systems.

Slewing Rings

ball and roller slewing rings up to a diameter of more than 6,000 mm.

IMO Holding is available to the Group as a central service provider with departments such as Quality Assurance, Human Resources, Finance, IT, and Group Purchasing.

The IMO Group is a member of the Bundesverband der Energie-Abnehmer e.V. (German Federal Association of Energy Consumers), the IHK (International Chamber of Commerce), and the Forschungsvereinigung Antriebstechnik (Research Union for Power Transmission).